Early Voting for Special Election Available at Fremont City Hall

Fremont, CA – October 12, 2005 – As a convenience to local voters, early voting for the November 8, 2005 Special Statewide Election will be available at Fremont City Hall beginning Monday, October 17, 2005. Voters may cast their ballots Monday through Friday, from Monday, October 17 through Friday, October 28, 2005, anytime between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., at City Hall, located at 3300 Capitol Avenue, Building A. Picture identification is required.

California will have a statewide Special Election on November 8, 2005 to consider eight propositions that would change state laws. Some counties may also have elections that day for local candidates and local ballot measures.

Early voting is available for all registered voters of Alameda County and is not limited to Fremont residents only. If you have not yet registered to vote, you may do so through Monday, October 24, 2005. Voter registration forms are available at Fremont City Hall or online at www.ss.ca.gov/elections/votereg1.html.

For more information about the California Special Election on November 8, 2005, a copy of the Free Easy Voter Guide and other resources are available at www.easyvoter.org or visit the City's website at www.fremont.gov/CityHall/Elections.
